CODE OF CONDUCT

OBJECTIVES

- Develop participants' dance techniques, skills, and styles
- Develop good habits and discipline
- Learn to let go of stress through dance and exercise
- Develop good relationships with your fellow dancers

Discipline:

Students must be prepared to participate in each class. Students are expected to execute class material to the best of their ability. Participants must maintain a commitment to instruction and correction by observing carefully, listening, and assessing your own and others progress and improvement.

Rules for Dancers:

- No cell phones during practice
- Wear comfortable clothes (avoid jeans whenever possible)
- No jewelry, watches, long earrings or necklaces should be worn
- Silence cell phones during class
- Folkloric dance shoes for women, boots for men or athletic shoes
- Women: if you have a practice skirt or dress, bring it to practice
- Have hair completely pulled back into a bun or ponytail

Dancer's Integrity Code:

A dancer's honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility are necessary to build character. These values are essential to promote and maintain a high level of integrity. Each dancer is responsible for his or her actions. Dancers are representatives of their communities and should uphold a sense of pride and dignity.

Dancers will learn:

- To follow verbal instructions
- To properly use weight on both feet
- To shift weight to foot
- To have foot positioning
- To control balance
- To have a center point of balance
- To spot while turning
- To follow choreography
- To lead and follow

I, _____, agree to abide by the Miztontli Code of Conduct.

MIZTONTLI MENTORSHIP PROGRAM

Grupo Folklórico Miztontli is proud to offer the Miztontli Mentorship Program. Under this mentorship system, each new STUDENT member (particularly those who identify as first-generation or out of state students) can request a Miztontli Mentor that will provide them with support and guidance integrating into the Miztontli Family, the University environment, and the Tucson community (depending on mentor availability).

Miztontli members come from a diverse range of backgrounds you can learn from, including low-income, first-generation, immigrant, international, bilingual, undergraduate, graduate, and professional students, from all majors (fine arts, humanities, social & behavioral sciences, and STEM), as well as first-time and experienced folklórico dancers.
